

Chicago Tribune Magazine

JUNE 3, 2007 • SECTION 10

S

U

M

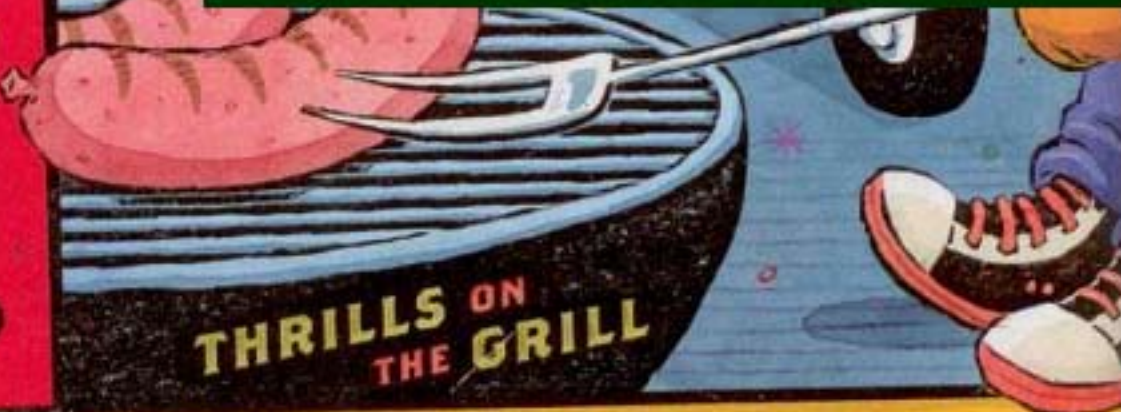

M

E

R

CELEBRATION OF SUMMER: Ravinia Festival is holding this event, which will include music and family activities, as a way to introduce young people to music. Highlights include the Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestra, Knot Fibb'n Celtic Band and others. A book drive sponsored by Rock for Reading and the Highland Park Library also will be held at the festival. Attendees are encouraged to bring new or slightly used, fun and general-interest books for students in grades K-8. The books will be donated to the Chicago Public Schools. Ravinia Festival also will be collecting non-perishable food for the local food pantry. Noon-6 p.m. Free; July 1; Ravinia Festival, 200-231 Ravinia Park Rd., 847-266-5100.

THRILLS ON THE GRILL

P L E A S U R E